

Caroline Bailey, MSW

Chicago, IL

Preferred pronouns: she/her or they/them
carolinekristinebailey93@gmail.com

Education

University of Illinois at Chicago August 2020- May 2025

- Community and Prevention Research
- Department of Psychology, Liberal Arts & Sciences
- Ph.D

Boston College August 2017- August 2019

- School of Social Work
- M.S.W

Brigham Young University August 2012- April 2017

- College of Family, Home, and Social Sciences
- B.S. in Sociology
 - Minor in Women's Studies

Publications

Bailey, C., Shaw, J., Harris, A. (2021). Mandatory Reporting and Adolescent Sexual Assault. Trauma, Violence, & Abuse.

Presentations

Bailey, C., Daviera, A. L., Kivell, N., Lakind, D., LoCurto, J., Renner, M., Rennick, J., Stacy, S., & Siegal, R. (authors alphabetical). (2021, June). Identifying and Unlinking Carcerality from Community Psychology: An Abolition Teach-In [Preconference workshop] at the 2021 Society for Community Research and Action Biennial Conference, Online.

Areguy, F., Bailey, C., DaViera, A., Kivell, N., LaKind, D., Renner, M. (2021, June). Fostering transnational solidarity and imagination for abolition: Directions for Community Psychology research and action. In A. DaViera (Chair), Using Critical Approaches to Build the Evidence-Base for Abolition. Symposium presented at the 2021 Society for Community Research and Action Biennial Conference, Online.

Bailey, C., Shaw, J., Allen, N., & Holland, H. (2021, June). Working from inside the belly of the beast: Engaging in anti-oppressive practice within the criminal legal system.

Caroline Bailey, MSW

Chicago, IL

Preferred pronouns: she/her or they/them
carolinekristinebailey93@gmail.com

Roundtable presented at the 2021 Society for Community Research and Action Biennial Conference, Online.

Shaw, J., Bailey, C., Harris, A., & Greeson, M. (2021, June). Recruiting survivors of adolescent sexual assault for qualitative interviews: Initial plans, emerging obstacles, and critical pivots. In J. Shaw (Chair), Recruiting hidden and hard-to-reach populations: Stories from the field. Symposium presented at the 2021 Society for Community Research and Action Biennial Conference, Online.

*Shaw, J., Bailey, C., Harris, A.N., & Greeson, M. (2020, April). "Mandatory Reporting and Adolescent Sexual Assault", Paper accepted at the Institute on Violence, Abuse, and Trauma Summit, Honolulu, HI.

Bailey, C. (2017, March). "Single-Parent Households and Early Onset of Sexual Activity: Does self-esteem explain early sex for adolescent girls?", Poster at the Mary Lou Fulton Conference, Provo, UT.

Research Experiences

Graduate Research Assistant, University of Illinois at Chicago, Chicago, IL August 2020-current

Dr. Jessica Shaw, 312-996-2469, jlshaw2@uic.edu

- Working with the principal researcher on various research projects; collect data on-site for various projects; supervise research assistants as they transcribe data; facilitate interviews and group interviews for data collection; examine and clean quantitative data; develop and build protocols for different aspects of various projects; train and support research team; coordinate with community partners for data collection; collaborate as a team to overcome project challenges; attend trainings on best practices for sexual violence research and research in communities; conduct literature reviews; write reports on progress of projects; problem solve as issues or concerns arise in research; transcribe and code qualitative data; write project manuscripts; assist on additional tasks and projects as needs arise.
- 20 hours per week

Research Coordinator, University of Illinois at Chicago, Chicago, IL September 2019-August 2020

Dr. Jessica Shaw, 312-996-2469, jlshaw2@uic.edu

Caroline Bailey, MSW

Chicago, IL

Preferred pronouns: she/her or they/them
carolinekristinebailey93@gmail.com

- Working with the principal researcher on various research projects; collect data on-site for various projects; supervise research assistants as they transcribe data; familiarize myself with development of various projects; facilitate interviews and group interviews for data collection; examine and clean quantitative data; develop and build protocols for different aspects of various projects; train and support research team; coordinate with community partners for data collection; build logic models and conceptualize program implementation for community partners; collaborate as a team to overcome project challenges; attend trainings on best practices for sexual violence research and research in communities; conduct literature reviews; write reports on progress of projects and provide to our funders; problem solve as issues or concerns arise in research; transcribe and code qualitative data; write project manuscripts; assist on additional tasks and projects as needs arise; build and maintain research team website.
- 35-40 hours per week

Research Assistant, Boston College School of Social Work, Chestnut Hill, MA November 2017-August 2019

Dr. Jessica Shaw, 617-552-2096, shawfg@bc.edu

- Training to interact with survivors; working with community organizations for data gathering and recruiting research participants; working with community organizations on research project development; training to understand adolescent sexual violence, data analysis, understanding quantitative and qualitative data methods; interviewing survivors; analyzing and readjusting research methods; collaborating as a research team; building data collection instruments; gathering and inserting data for project; work with community Taskforce to produce document on evidence-based practice; training around building community partnerships and re-adjusting research approach; collaborating and strategizing on project recruitment; experiencing continuous professional development and project politics and working with community partners.
- 10-15 hours per week

Research Assistant, Brigham Young University-Sociology Department, Provo, Utah August 2016-April 2017

Scott Sanders, 801-422-5309, scott_sanders@byu.edu

- Researching; editing survey and gathering sample for research project; designing research; compiling data; additional academic research as needed for professor; transcribing interviews; understanding project design and purpose.
- 10 hours per week

Professional Experience

Caroline Bailey, MSW

Chicago, IL

Preferred pronouns: she/her or they/them
carolinekristinebailey93@gmail.com

Consultant, Arizona Center for Marriage and Family Therapy, Gilbert, AZ January 2020-current
Dr. C. Everett Bailey, 480-370-9520, dreverettbailey@gmail.com

- Creating and posting content on the website; updating website and content as needed; re-design of website and brand; managing social media (e.g. Facebook, Twitter, Yelp, LinkedIn; Google); building online presence and professional networks, monitoring page analytics; building website library for psychoeducation and tools for site visitors; working with owner/founder to incorporate feedback and ideas; develop strategies to continue to promote and build business.
- 3-5 hours per week

Part-time Counselor, Casa Myrna Vazquez, Boston, MA May 2019-August 2019
Joanne Schindler, 617-521-0175, jschindler@casamyrna.org

- Meeting with community clients regularly; facilitating a therapeutic group; planning and prepping for therapeutic group; participating in case review and collaborating on participants multi-faceted needs; treatment planning and discussion for clients with counseling team; provided crisis support and counseling at residential programs; personally advocate for clients as needs arise; provide referrals to community resources or to internal departments; setting goals with clients dependent on what they need at the time; keep progress notes to track client progress; collaborating with other departments on the need of participants as they arise; prepare for and help plan residential events for residential programs; attend trainings to adopt best practices.
- 20 hours per week

Counseling Intern, Casa Myrna, Boston, MA November 2018-May 2019
Joanne Schindler, 617-521-0175, jschindler@casamyrna.org

- Attending, planning, and co-facilitating therapeutic groups; creating sustainable group curriculum; attending trainings on domestic violence; developing training materials and curriculum for organization; collaborating with other departments on the needs of the participants; counseling sessions with community clients; working with participants on finding and accessing mental health services; providing therapeutic support to shelter participants; weekly meetings to discuss the needs of participants and to strategize on how to improve in our work; writing progress notes on participants; goal-setting with colleagues and participants; reading and studying relevant literature to improve trauma-informed care; collaborating with community advocacy on current initiatives; collaborating on and developing agency relevant documents.
- 24 hours per week

Writer, BCSSW Immigration Integration Lab, Chestnut Hill, MA September 2018-May 2019
Westy Egmont, 617-522-0324, westy.egmont@bc.edu

Caroline Bailey, MSW

Chicago, IL

Preferred pronouns: she/her or they/them
carolinekristinebailey93@gmail.com

- Investigating potential agencies to highlight; contacting and developing rapport with potential agencies; interviewing key members of organizations on their service population and the work they do among immigrants as well as what they are doing as an organization that makes them successful; working in collaboration with other writers to find agencies and produce other relevant information; write spotlight articles of organizations for the use of other service providers.
- 10-12 hours per month

Clinical Intern, Riverside Life Skills Center, Needham, MA September 2018-November 2018
Heather Percy, 617-755-3286, hpercy@riversidecc.org

- Attending, planning and co-facilitating therapeutic groups; developing and implementing treatment plans and interventions; collaborating with clinicians on client's treatment; performing assessments; developing and implementing individual action plans; processing emotions/feelings with clients; advocating for clients among school personnel, health care providers, and family; supervisory meetings with clinicians; receiving and implementing feedback; recording and tracking client progress daily and weekly; developing and evaluating client goals.
- 24 hours per week

Social Work Intern, Boston College Immigration Clinic, Newton, MA August 2017-May 2018
Mary Holper, 617-552-4573, mary.holper@bc.edu

- Assisting on legal cases; reading and analyzing legal documents; assisting in writing portions of the legal brief; meeting and consulting with clients; processing with clients about difficult experiences or choices; conducting research for developing legal arguments relevant to the client; interviewing third parties and clients for case development; working with third party organizations to support clients; developing case planning agendas and deadlines; attending court to support clients and to learn more about the processes of immigration court; providing social work framework for mental illness and trauma; training peers on understanding the social circumstance and effects of trauma among immigrants; attending relevant lectures to better understand immigration law.
- 15 hours per week

Volunteer, HELPInternational, Thailand June 2017- July 2017
Kirsten Moffat, 801-374-0556, coordinator@www.help-international.org

- Planning sustainable projects in remote villages in Northern Thailand; teaching English at various elementary schools; teaching health lessons to different populations and communities; planning and executing activities in villages for children; teaching older woman yoga and other relevant health information, executing infrastructure projects in

Caroline Bailey, MSW

Chicago, IL

Preferred pronouns: she/her or they/them
carolinekristinebailey93@gmail.com

remote villages; collaborating on how to institute sustainable change; understanding my own impact on communities when coming in as a Westerner; immersing myself in the community to better understand their needs.

- 5 hours per day

Co-President, Women Studies Honors Society, Provo, Utah

July 2016-April 2017

Valerie Hegstrom, 801-422-3191, valerie_hegstrom@byu.edu

- Planning Women Studies activities; attending Women Studies activities; actively promoting Women Studies as a minor and the Women Studies Honors Society; advising on way to develop and institute women-relevant activities; working with other clubs/programs to establish activities/events' providing safe spaces to have conversations about the difficulties of being a women in academia.
- 20 hours per month

Brigham Young University Women Studies Intern, Women Studies Program, Provo, Utah

June 2016-December 2016

Brianna Magnusson, 801-918- 3613, brianna_magnusson@byu.edu

- Planning the Women Studies Fall Conference; planning and administering the advertising; meeting weekly to discuss and strategize the structure of the event and approach to advertising; heading up social media campaign; creating and designing posters; assisting in day of event tasks; monitoring the needs of guest speakers; setting up and cleaning up the event.
- 16 hours per month

Assistant Supervisor, New Haven Residential Treatment Center, Spanish Fork, Utah February 2016-October 2016

Emily King, 801-636-5732, emikking@live.com

- Administering medications to residents; processing emotions and difficult experiences with residents; maintaining boundaries and rules with residents to model healthy relationships; taking leadership responsibilities in the structure of the day for residents; planning and implementing therapeutic activities for residents; meeting as a residential team and discussing the needs of the residents; receiving trainings on social work responsibilities; and developing relationships with teenage girls.
- 24-36 hours per week

Volunteer Experiences

CAPS Volunteer, Boston Area Rape Crisis Center, Cambridge, MA

October 2017-June 2018

*Cancelled due to Covid-19

Updated September 2021

Caroline Bailey, MSW

Chicago, IL

Preferred pronouns: she/her or they/them
carolinekristinebailey93@gmail.com

Sharon Schiffer, 800-841-8371, sschiffer@barcc.org

- Hosting and presenting at engagements in the community; teaching workshops about sexual violence, bystander intervention, responding to disclosures, and consent; attending trainings on sexual violence; attending trainings on building presentation skills; interacting with and providing support for survivors; speaking with people in the community about sexual violence; referring survivors to other agency services for further support; collaborating on what to present on and how with other volunteers.
- 10 hours per month

Leadership/Training

Leadership

- Research Coordinator/Supervisor Fall 2019-Fall 2020
- Leadership Council BYU Women Studies Honors Society Fall 2016-Spring 2017
- Assistant Supervisor, New Haven RTC Spring 2016-Fall 2016

Training

- 40-hour Domestic Violence Training Fall 2018
- 40-hour Rape Crisis Counselor Training Fall 2017

Professional Affiliations

Society for Community Research and Action (SCRA) April 2021-current

National Association of Social Workers (NASW) October 2019-current